Five of the Best Rooftop Bars in Hong Kong

By Lee Cobaj | Posted: Friday 22 June 2012

There's not a whole lot that beats sipping a cocktail while gazing out over Victoria Harbour and the vertical playground that surrounds it. So here's our pick of how to do the best rooftop bars in Hong Kong, ELLE style...

Sevva

If you're looking to step out in Hong Kong then you're going to want to look your best for a trip to SEVVA, the swankiest rooftop bar in the city. Owned by Chanel's former Asia Pacific communications director and Hong Kong style icon, Bonnie Gokson, this penthouse bar on the top of the prestigious Prince's Building boasts a spectacular wraparound terrace with sensational views of Sir Norman Foster's HSBC building, I.M. Pei's China Bank and the sparkling city and harbour. Elbow your way past the bankers and beautiful people, bag a spot on the gorgeous terrace, order up a fruity Kama Sutra cocktail (made with fresh passionfruit, mango, lime, rum and a decadent dark rum shooter on the side) and savour your moment at one of the world's most glamorous bars.

Address: Prince's Building 25th Floor, 10 Chater Road, Central
