

Time Out

Hong Kong

KNOW MORE. DO MORE.

July 20–August 2, 2011

Issue 84 HK$18

STARRING!

RUBBER BAND

AND

HOCC
MC JIN
KHALIL FONG

CHOOSE YOUR OWN COVER!

THE CHANGING FACE OF CANTOPOP

4 ARTISTS SHAPING THE FUTURE

INTERVIEW

FERNANDO TORRES
THE £50M
SUPERSTAR
FIGHTS BACK

TAI HANG
FOLLOW OUR FOODIE TOUR!
PAGE 28

PLUS!

BANNED BOOKS

WHY THEY'RE BOOMING IN HONG KONG

Time Out Picks

Our essential rundown of the city's best restaurants, old and new – updated fortnightly!

Recently reviewed

HOW TO USE THE LISTINGS

* The restaurants that appear in this section are chosen by Time Out Hong Kong's food critics. We visit the establishments anonymously and pay for our own meals and drinks. Prices are based on a meal for two people without drinks.

* Listings are chosen and changed at the discretion of the editor. Time Out Hong Kong does not accept compensation of any kind for listing events or venues.

Sevva

This flashy restaurant by Hong Kong socialite Bonnie Gokson has garnered a loyal following – and with apparent good reason. The space itself is incredible: a 360-degree balcony offers stunning views of the city. The furnishings, meanwhile, are straight out of Elle Decor and demand appreciation for their style and easy elegance. The restaurant's just launched a new menu that relies heavily on fresh, organic produce. Detox with the beetroot minestrone with orzo and the 'Eat, Pray and Love that Bod' sandwich filled with fresh tomatoes, avocado and egg on Soy-Lin toast. 25/F, Prince's Bldg, 10 Chater Rd, Central, 2537 1388; www.sevva.hk. $1,400.