From glamorous Hong Kong to the vast Australian outback, you can 'rough it' in luxury or stay in sheer designer bliss.

A GLAMOROUS NEW dining experience is lighting up Hong Kong. Style icon Bonnie Gokson's new SEVVA, ABOVE and LEFT, at the top of the Prince's Building in Central, has four distinct zones and 360 degree views of the harbour. The Harbour Side zone has relaxed dining, and there is also a luscious Cake corner, RIGHT, where melt-in-your-mouth cupcakes and millefeuilles are presented under a '50s Murano chandelier. "This is an interpretation of the Hong Kong I have known, together with elements from my travels and experiences around the world," says Gokson. www.sevva.com.
